The 2009 LSU Softball Media Guide
was produced by the LSU Sports Information

The LSU Softball Media Guide has been rated among the top seven collegiate softball publications in the nation for five of the past six seasons. The media guide was named third best in the nation in 2007 by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The publication ranked fifth in 2006, second in 2005, third in 2004 and seventh in 2002.

BUILD IT

The 2009 LSU softball team is up for the challenge as the Tigers are ready to continue to build on the program's strong tradition that has already been established in the form of two Women's College World series trips, five SEC titles and 10 NCAA Regional appearances.

After having to deal with some injuries during the fall season, head coach Yvette Girouard is confident in her team's depth and that the program's 10 newest faces will blend with the solid nucleus that returns.

"The positive that came in dealing with the injuries over the fall was that we had the opportunity to see some players grow which allowed us to utilize different lineup combinations," Girouard said. "We have some questions heading into the season, but we have a lot of depth. There's a ton of potential for this group of Tigers."

LSU also moves into the state-of-the-art new Tiger Park that features 1,289 seats angled toward the playing field with an outfield berm that can accommodate an additional 1,200 fans. The stadium also features a first-class clubhouse, including a locker room, team lounge, batting cages, theatre for video breakdown and an outdoor deck overlooking the playing field.

"It's exciting to see the new Tiger Park come to fruition," Girouard said. "It may not be the biggest ballpark, but it has a lot of character to it. It's going to be a jewel in the realm of college softball. Everything from a fan and player viewpoint will be located at the new Tiger Park."

THE BATTERY

As is the case for any collegiate softball program, LSU's pitching staff will have the biggest impact on the Tigers this season.

Dani Hofer and Cody Trahan return to anchor the pitching staff. Both fired over 150 innings for the Tigers as Hofer started last season with an impressive 16-2 mark that included four wins over ranked opponents before a wrist injury. She enters 2009 ranked in the top eight of program history in 12 different pitching categories.

"It all starts in the circle," Girouard said. "The bottom line is to succeed there and then there is no question that the team will reach many of its goals. Dani is coming off surgery but has started back strong. We need her to return to her form from the end of the 2007 season where she was All-SEC First Team and SEC Tournament MVP."

Trahan picked up All-SEC Second-Team honors after going 18-6 last season which included winning nine of her 12 league decisions. The nine wins were fourth, while the 2.18 ERA was fifth in the SEC.

"Cody is expected to carry a significant role and we are looking for her to have a banner season," Girouard said. "She will utilize her SEC experience and be a better pitcher this season."

When not in the outfield, Kirsten Shortridge will see action in the circle. The transfer from Baylor earned Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors and was a key member of the Bears 2007 Women's College World Series squad. She posted a 17-6 record and tallied wins over Florida and Texas A&M.

"Kirsten possesses the best drop ball on the staff and has Women's College World Series experience," Girouard said. "She is a phenomenal athlete who will keep the ball in the ballpark."

Casey Faile and Brittany Mack also are in the mix to throw innings for LSU. Faile went 4-1 with a 1.92 ERA as a freshman registering 55 strikeouts in 51 innings, while Mack notched 60 career victories in addition to tossing six no-hitters and three perfect games for Westwood High School in Round Rock, Texas.

"Casey has worked extremely hard on developing new looks and polishing up her game, while Brittany will groom herself into something special down the line for the Tigers," Girouard said. "Consistency is something that we are working with both daily."

Calling the shots for the pitchers will be freshman catcher Morgan Russell, who racked up All-Edmond Co-Player of the Year at Sante Fe High School in Oklahoma. She batted .402 with 22 doubles and 27 RBIs as a senior.

"There's no doubt that Morgan will step into some big shoes [replacing Killian Roessner], but I believe she'll have no problem filling them," associate head coach James DeFeo said. "She has come around quite nicely on offense and worked hard during the fall season developing the all-important pitcher-catcher relationships."

Jessica Mouse will move to catcher to spell Russell when needed.

INFIELD

The Tigers must replace three-fourths of its infield from last season. Jessica Mouse is the lone returning starter at third base. She anchored the hot corner committing only six errors on 160 chances for a .963 fielding percentage.

"Jessica is a special player who loves our system and the rest of the infielders look to as a leader," assistant coach Megan Smith said. "She is one of the top defensive third basemen in the country and leads by example making everybody around her better."

LSU spent a majority of the fall season introducing six new infielders into the system.

"Our freshmen are an eager, hard-working and enthusiastic group that started to come together as a cohesive unit at the end of the fall," Smith said. "The good thing is that they'll have to go out and play. They are confident and ready to contribute right away."

Juliana Santos is the frontrunner at shortstop. She was the Modesto Bee Player of the Year pacing her section with 55 RBIs on a .667 average with 11 home runs at Orestimba High School in California despite battling Crohn's Disease.

"Juliana is a sparkplug who proves everyday why she should be starting," Smith said. "She keeps everyone together on the infield and is a fun player to watch."

Ashley Langoni is slated to start at second base after picking up of pair of All-State selections at Pueblo West High School in Colorado. She powered home the second-most RBIs in 2006 and also could see action at third base and first base.

"Ashley is extremely versatile on defense and has proved to be one of our better hitters during the fall," Smith said. "She is an aggressive infielder who attacks the ball with good fundamentals."

Anissa Young is set at first base after earning a trio of Sunkist League MVP's at Bloomington High School in California. She may hold the state's career home run record as her total from her freshman season in unavailable and was the San Bernardino Player of the Year.

"Anissa is an excellent receiver who does a good job with errant throws," Smith said. "We're also looking to her to help Jessica out as a vocal leader."

Katie Hamilton, Courtney Hollier and Lauren Capello can step into different positions in the infield when needed.

"Katie is not flashy but a solid player all the way around," Smith said. "Courtney is really smooth and makes plays look effortless, while Lauren is good edition that is eager to work at any position."

OUTFIELD

The Tiger outfield will once again be characterized by speed, power and depth.

Rachel Mitchell headlined LSU as an All-SEC First-Team pick that ranked inside the SEC's Top 10 in batting average (.374), home runs (11), RBIs (51), runs scored (48), total bases (126) and slugging percentage (.665). She will see most of her action in left and center field.

"We're expecting big things from Rachel this season," associate head coach James DeFeo said. "The faces around her in the lineup are new and she is going to have to be the veteran we can count on in clutch situations."

When she isn't in the circle, Kirsten Shortridge will patrol center field. She was first among Big 12 freshmen hitting .340 with 14 stolen bases at Baylor in 2007.

Jazz Jackson looks to return to her NFCA All-South Region and All-SEC Second-Team form where she hit a scorching .377 with a .425 on-base percentage as a freshman in 2007, while Ashley Applegate will see more time after registering 14 starts as a freshman.

"Jazz and Ashley are comfortable at every outfield position," DeFeo said. "It's key for us to have interchangeable parts in the Tiger Patrol outfield because that allows us to give teams different looks with our lineup."

Katie Guillory and Tiffany Shaw will provide depth at the corner outfield positions.

"Katie and Tiffany have done a great job during the fall season of learning the system and getting their footwork down," DeFeo said.

Rachel Mitchell earned All-SEC First-Team honors after ranking in the league's Top 10 in six different offensive categories.

LINEUP

The LSU offense is loaded and geared up for another successful season after ranking in the Top 50 nationally last season in five offensive categories, including runs (5.1), stolen bases (1.6) and home runs (0.9) per game.

"We have some firepower to replace," DeFeo said. "The good news is that we've brought in players that can not only pick up the slack but add to our balanced line-up. We have a lot of weapons that complement each other well. "

Kirsten Shortridge and Jazz Jackson are left-handed slappers that could work as a 1-2 punch at the top of the lineup. Jackson also could see time as a second lead-off hitter at the No. 9 spot along with Ashley Applegate, Katie Guillory and Tiffany Shaw.

"It's so important to have speed at the top and bottom of the order," DeFeo said. "It can really set the tone for the offense. Kirsten is the quintessential lead-off hitter because she possesses both speed and power. Jazz can wreak havoc on the bases already with 37 stolen bases in two seasons. Ashley, Katie and Tiffany have all improved at their slapping during the fall season."

The heart of the order is comprised of Rachel Mitchell and Casey Faile along with quartet of freshmen Ashley Langoni, Morgan Russell, Juliana Santos and Anissa Young.

"Each player in this group has the power in their bat to hit the ball over the berm in left field at the new Tiger Park," DeFeo said. "We're expecting big home run and RBI totals from this group to continue the strong tradition of the Tiger Attack Hitting Corps."

Jessica Mouse has improved on her consistency and gap-to-gap hitting during the fall, while Katie Hamilton, Courtney Hollier and Lauren Capello also possess strong bats that could see time in the batting order.

"It is fun for us as coaches to see how these young players develop and complement each other," DeFeo said. "The challenge is to find out where they best fit in the line-up."

Dani Hofer enters the 2009 season ranked in the top eight of program history in 12 different pitching categories.

SCHEDULE

LSU has played a challenging schedule in the past and 2009 will be no different as the Tigers have 24 games slated against NCAA Regional teams, including six tilts with a trio of Women's College World Series teams.

The Tigers square off with UAB, Oklahoma and host Hawai`i at the Oceanic Time Warner Cable Paradise Classic (Feb. 5-7) to start the season.

"Our Hawai`i trip is nice but tough where we will have our work cut out for us," Girouard said. "We're throwing these young pups immediately into the fire on the road. Fire is competition and you can only grow and develop team chemistry through actual competition."

LSU christens the new Tiger Park with a mid-week game against McNeese State (Feb. 11) before welcoming national runner-up Texas A&M, Ohio State and Sam Houston State for the Easton Tiger Classic (Feb. 13-15).

Northern Iowa, Texas State and UAB visit Tiger Park the following weekend in the Easton Purple and Gold Challenge (Feb. 20-22).

LSU's toughest weekend of the non-conference schedule comes at NFCA Leadoff Classic (Feb. 27-March 1). The Tigers take on four NCAA Regional squads, including Northwestern, a Super Regional participant.

"Our home tournaments are always challenging and this season is no different," Girouard said. "We also have the challenge of facing off against some stiff competition at the prestigious NFCA Leadoff Classic."

In addition, LSU plays mid-week home-and-home series against McNeese State (Feb. 11 & April 22), Nicholls State (March 4 & April 7), Southeastern Louisiana (Feb. 18 & April 15) and Southern Miss (Feb. 25 & April 1). The Tigers also face off with Baylor (March 11).

LSU embarks into SEC action against Kentucky (March 7 & 8). The Tigers also plays host to Women's College World Series foes Alabama (March 18) and Florida (April 18 & 19) along with Tennessee (April 4 & 5), and South Carolina (April 25 & 26).

LSU hits the road against NCAA Regional squads Georgia (March 14 & 15), Mississippi State (March 21 & 22) and Arkansas (April 10 & 11) in addition to Ole Miss (March 24) and Auburn (May 2 & 3).

"The SEC home schedule for our fans is as good as it gets," Girouard said. "Every series provides a challenge that we look forward to facing."

LSU

LSU's Memorial Tower (main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (inset). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended.

In a summer 2008 edition of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities" for the first time.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 144-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past five years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Newsweek magazine named Louisiana State University the "Most Diverse" school in the nation in the Sept. 3, 2003, issue. The enrollment consists of 24 percent minority students.

Why LSU?

Britni Sneed
Three-time All-American,
Two-time SEC Pitcher of the Year
& current Baylor assistant coach

"I chose LSU because I loved the school. Everything from the beautiful campus to the dominating softball program. On my recruiting visit I noticed the support from the athletic program and the awesome fans. The overall atmosphere was like none I had experienced! My years at LSU are dear to my heart and I will forever bleed purple and gold."

"LSU is my home. It was a place where I made my name and a place where I was able to come here and have fun. It was the best three years of my life. While you are here, have fun and become a master of time management. You need to do what you have to do to make it. Work hard. I have been blessed. Baton Rouge is the place that helped me become who I am. I will never forget this place."

Shaquille O'Neal
Four-Time NBA Champion and two-time NBA MVP

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

David Toms
2001 PGA Champion
and LSU Graduate

"I was basically an in-state guy and had always thought about going to LSU for football and to get a good education. I made a lot of visits to different schools in my selection process, but everything always pointed toward LSU. My heart and my family guided me in that direction not just for the athletics, but for the academics as well. From top to bottom LSU has good people from the coaches on down the line."

Community OUTREACH

The Shaquille O'Neal CHAMPS/Life Skills Program

The Community Service aspect does not only serve to enhance a student-athletes' college experience, but also serves to expand character. Athletes not only gain a strong sense of self-worth, but also experience personal satisfaction and growth from volunteering and community service activities. More important are the benefits that the community receives. It enables the community to gain an enormous advantage in feeling that they have a "partnership" with LSU student-athletes.

LSU student-athletes participate in a variety of community service projects including reading in schools, nursing home visits, hospital pediatric ward visits, speaking engagements, and more in East Baton Rouge Parish.

Mike Mallet
Director for the CHAMPS/Life Skills program

Jade Jenkins
Assistant Director for the CHAMPS/Life Skills program

What is CHAMPS?

The Shaquille O'Neal CHAMPS/Life Skills program was developed by the NCAA to help prepare student-athletes for the challenges of life beyond the playing field. Through workshops, service projects, and social events, CHAMPS, an acronym for Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success, brings LSU student-athletes information that will prepare them for the biggest game of all - the game of life!

How Can CHAMPS Help?

By focusing on "real life" skills and personal development, the CHAMPS Program not only assists the student-athletes with meeting daily challenges, but also enhances student-athlete's growth in their college years and beyond.

CHAMPS at LSU

The CHAMPS/Life Skills program at LSU is operated out of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, and the focus of the program is on five commitments viewed as critical to personal growth:

- Academic Excellence
- Athletic Excellence
- Career Development
- Personal Development
- Community Service

Bo Campbell Auditorium

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

Old Man River just got an upgrade. Yes, this is one city that's rolling on the river.

Proximity

Baton Rouge is just an hour away from the French Quarter in New Orleans and even closer to the million-acre Atchafalaya Swamp, which is called one of the biggest fishing ponds in the country.

THE GIROUARD PHILOSOPHY

I believe fully in trying to instill in our athletes a knowledge and a love for the qualities and virtues that comprise good character.

Character is what we are inside. It is often revealed by how we act when no one is looking. Winning in our program should occur both on the field as well as in the classroom, in society and in personal lives after Tiger softball. When our players leave our program, hopefully we have developed successful people that will feel that their Tiger family will always have a unique and lasting place in their hearts.

LSU is a very special place with everything provided for success; from athletic facilities to the very best academic center in the country and a first-class administration all at the disposal of our student athletes.

In addition to having the friendliness of Louisiana people, LSU has one of the most beautiful campuses in the country. Our players will know from their first visit to the LSU campus that their number one goal is to leave this institution with their degree in hand.

In setting our high standards for the athletes that represent this program, the number one characteristic I look for in student-athletes is discipline.

We want disciplined people in our program. It all starts with someone who can control her choices in a respectable way, both on and off the field. The ability to choose right from a wrong should not be a battle. We expect to play for championships here at LSU and every student-athlete who competes for the Tiger softball team will have to have that same discipline and expectations. Our staff is dedicated to LSU, our program and our players.

Concerning the softball side, we will incorporate the 'Tiger Attack' mind set for our games.

I'd like to think that my teams are aggressive and hard-nosed, and that they will play the game hard until the final out. We must attack every inning as if the score were 0-0, always thinking 'it is never enough'. We will always be a fundamental team with high emphasis placed on this aspect of the game throughout the entire year. Playing the game with pride, emotion and respect for tradition and class should be a goal for every LSU team. This team will embody those qualities.

A 2005 inductee into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame, LSU head coach Yvette Girouard's effect on the Tiger softball program for the last eight seasons has been powerful. A pioneer in the game of collegiate women's softball and one of the greatest coaches in history, she continues to add to her legacy by helping LSU maintain its place among the nation's elite.

Girouard, who was also inducted into the Louisiana Softball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in June 2002, enters the 2009 season among the career leaders in NCAA Division I wins (No. 5) and winning percentage (No. 4) and among the active NCAA Division I coaching leaders in wins (No. 4) and winning percentage (No. 4).

Against Arkansas on April 6, 2005, she became the sixth coach in NCAA history in any division to earn her 1,000th career victory and just the fifth in NCAA Division I history. Averaging more than 40 wins a season in her 28 years as a head coach, she is one of only a handful of coaches who can boast that feat over such an extended and noteworthy career.

With 27-straight winning seasons to her credit, she has guided her athletes to 39 All-America honors, including 11 while at LSU, 16 Academic All-America honors, including 2007 Academic All-American Dee Dee Henderson, and taken teams to 17 NCAA Regionals and five Women's College World Series.

No stranger to Oklahoma City, Girouard became just the third coach in NCAA history to take two programs to the Women's College World Series after leading UL-Lafayette to three World Series appearances in the 1990s and LSU to the WCWS in 2001 and 2004.

In 2004, she led LSU to its second Women's College World Series appearance, where the Tigers advanced to within one game of the championship game. After defeating Michigan in extra innings in its first game, LSU fell to eventual national champion UCLA in game two.

Weather postponed play for a day and forced the Tigers into the unenviable situation of having to win three games in a single day to advance to the national championship game. LSU began the day with a win over Florida State before defeating California to force just the seventh "if necessary" game in WCWS history.

Unfortunately, the Tigers could not get past California a second time and came up seven outs shy of the national championship game. LSU's remarkable run marked the first time since 1984 a school from east of the Mississippi River had advanced to within a game of the national championship. Pitcher Kristin Schmidt was named the WCWS Most Outstanding Player, becoming the first player to earn the honor who was not a member of the national championship team.

In addition, the Tigers were ranked as high as second nationally, matching the highest national ranking for any team coached by Girouard.

In 2001, Girouard led LSU to its first appearance in the WCWS, where the Tigers finished third. Under her guidance, UL-Lafayette (formerly Southwestern Louisiana) advanced to the WCWS three times, with a pair of fifth-place finishes and a third-place finish in 1993.

With an .815 winning percentage in the 1990s, her teams posted the third-best winning percentage in the nation behind only Arizona and UCLA. In eight seasons at LSU, she has posted the second most wins in the nation over that period with the fifth-best winning percentage.

While her influence has been a catalyst for the growth of the game in the state and nationally for many years, her impact in just seven years in Baton Rouge has been no less significant. Becoming the first coach in Southeastern Conference history to lead a team to back-to-back tournament championships, Girouard made a clean sweep of the three major league titles (SEC Western Division, SEC Championship, SEC Tournament Championship) in three of her first four seasons. 2008 was another successful campaign as the Tigers went 44-18 and hosted a NCAA Regional in its final season at the old Tiger Park.

In 2007, she kept LSU among the Top 10 nationally as the Tigers swept their NCAA Regional in Palo Alto and advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals for the second-straight year. The Tigers earned their fourth SEC Tournament championship under Girouard, and took two out of three from both No. 1 Tennessee and No. 2 Alabama during the SEC regular season, earning LSU its fourth Western Division title in the last seven years.

For her achievements, Girouard was honored with her unprecedented 13th Louisiana Coach of the Year honor. Killian Roessner was named the Diamond Sports National Catcher of the Year, and she and Leslie Klein earned NFCA All-America honors, the third All-America honor of Klein's career. Dee Dee Henderson also earned Academic All-America honors, giving LSU an Academic All-American in each of the past three seasons.

Head Coach

Girouard guided LSU back into the Top 10 nationally in 2006 as the Tigers won their NCAA Regional in Baton Rouge and advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals for the first time. In the Super Regional in Tucson, Ariz., LSU earned its first win over a No. 1-ranked team as the Tigers took the second game from eventual national champion Arizona, 3-2. LSU was one of only two teams to hand the Wildcats a loss at home as the Tigers became the first program in history to knock off Arizona in a game at home that could send it to the Women's College World Series.

Girouard was honored with her third SEC Coach of the Year award and named the Louisiana Coach of the Year for a 12th time. Emily Turner and Klein earned NFCA All-America honors, while Stephanie Hill earned her second-straight first-team Academic All-America honor.

In 2005, she became the fifth coach in NCAA Division I history and the sixth coach in NCAA history to earn 1,000 career victories. She guided Hill to first-team Academic All-America honors, the second Academic All-American in school history and the first to earn first-team honors.

After failing to earn the league titles in 2003, LSU came back to sweep all three major titles again in 2004. The Tigers earned the top seed in NCAA Region 3, marking the 14th consecutive trip to the postseason for Girouard and the seventh for LSU. The Tigers swept through NCAA Regional play, defeating Illinois in the championship game to earn their berth in the Women's College World Series.

For their efforts, Girouard, associate head coach James DeFeo and assistant coach Lori Osterberg were named the National Fastpitch Coaches Association South Region Coaching Staff of the Year, marking the seventh regional coach of the year honor in Girouard's career.

In 2003, Girouard earned her 900th career victory and the Tigers advanced through the conference tournament to the championship game for the fifth-consecutive year. LSU earned its sixth-consecutive trip to the NCAA Regionals and finished the year ranked No. 15, the fourth consecutive top 15 ranking for LSU and fifth consecutive top 20-finish for Girouard.

In 2002, Girouard picked up her 100th win at LSU in just 119 games, the fastest Tiger coach to 100 victories in school history. In addition, Girouard led LSU to its then highest regular-season ranking, No. 3 nationally.

After sweeping all three of the SEC Championship titles and advancing to the NCAA Regional finals, she earned her second-straight SEC Coach of the Year honor. She has been named coach of the year by three separate conferences: the Southeastern Conference in 2001 and 2002, the Sun Belt in 2000 and the Southland in 1984, 1985 and 1987. A fourth-consecutive Louisiana Sport Writer's Association Louisiana Coach of the Year honor followed for Girouard.

In her first season at LSU, Girouard was able to accomplish something no other coach had been able to do. She led the Tigers to their first appearance in the WCWS with a victory over her former school, UL-Lafayette, in the NCAA Regional Championship game.

In the WCWS, the Tigers fell to Stanford in the first round, but bounced back to knock off Iowa and defending national champion Oklahoma before losing out to UCLA and finishing in a tie for third place nationally, the then highest final ranking for any LSU squad.

For their accomplishments, she, DeFeo and Osterberg were named the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year. She was also named the Coach of the Year by the SEC and the LSWA. To her credit, she was named the National Coach of the Year in 1990 and 1993.

In her two decades as the Lady Cajuns' head coach, she built the team from the ground floor with no scholarships and a $3,000 budget to one of the nation's perennial powers. She advanced her UL-Lafayette teams to the NCAA Regionals a total of 10 times, hosting on seven of those occasions.

The daughter of the late Rose Mary and Alton Girouard, Yvette was born in Broussard, La., and attended Comeaux High School. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree from USL in 1976 in health and physical education. During her college days, she played on the Lady Cajun volleyball team and was named the school's Female Athlete of the Year in 1976.

Following college, Girouard served as head coach at Lafayette High School where she began the softball program in 1977. In 1980, she coached at her alma mater, Comeaux High School, before beginning the USL softball program in 1981.

Girouard served a three-year term as the South Region Representative on the NCAA All-America Committee and served two, two-year stints on the NCAA South Regional ranking committee. She also served as a member of the nine-person NCAA Softball Rules Committee.

With a list of accomplishments and awards that speak for themselves, Girouard has proven that she can take her teams to the next level and be successful. Her guidance and leadership have carried her through 27 outstanding seasons and hopefully she will continue to build upon her past successes and reach the ultimate goal of bringing LSU its first national championship in softball.

In September 2007, Girouard lost her most loyal fan as her beloved mother, Rose Mary (shown here at Girouard's 1000th win celebration), passed away. Mama G will be missed by softball fans everywhere.

James DeFeo

Associate Head Coach
Ninth Year

James DeFeo enters his fifth season as the associate head coach at LSU after four years as an assistant coach. It also is his10th season under head coach Yvette Girouard after one year with her at UL-Lafayette.

Prior to joining Girouard's staff, DeFeo was a graduate assistant at Southern Miss in 1999 when the Golden Eagles became the first, first-year program to advance to the Women's College World Series.

In 2004, he, Girouard and former assistant coach Lori Osterberg were named the National Fastpitch Coaches Association South Region Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the Tigers to their second WCWS appearance. The trio was also named the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2001 after they led LSU to its first WCWS berth.

DeFeo's main duties include working with the hitters and the outfielders as well as recruiting, scouting and practice management. In 2008, the Tiger hitters ranked in the top 50 nationally in stolen bases (22nd) home runs (24th), slugging percentage (27th), runs scored (30th) and batting average (40th).

The Tigers matched the program's highest on-base percentage (.380) in additon to drawing the second most walks (203). LSU also belted 57 home runs, the third-most in school history.

Rachel Mitchell, an All-SEC First-Team and Second-Team NFCA All-South Region selection in 2008, ranked inside the SEC's Top 10 in batting average (.374), home runs (11), RBIs (51), runs scored (48), total bases (126) and slugging percentage (.665).

In 2007, LSU recorded the second best slugging percentage (.469). The Tigers also tied for the second most doubles in school history and fourth most in SEC history with 102. The 58 home runs hit, including home runs by 10 difference players, tied for the second most in a single season in school history.

Individually, three-time All-American Leslie Klein ranked in the top 10 in the SEC in virtually every hitting category and ranked in the top 50 in the NCAA in batting average and doubles per game. She finished her career as one of the most prolific hitters in both LSU and SEC history with three Tiger single-season records – doubles, home runs and total bases; and five LSU career records – slugging percentage, doubles, home runs, RBIs and total bases.

Over the previous four seasons, the Tiger hitters ranked in the top 30 in the NCAA in batting average, while posting two top 20 rankings in slugging percentage. LSU ranked in the top 10 nationally in doubles per game in 2006 and 2004, with top 30 rankings in scoring in both 2005 and 2006.

In 2004, LSU broke the school record and led the SEC in home runs, while LSU ranked second in the league in batting average, runs scored, hits, triples and RBIs. Individually, then-freshman Klein ranked in the top 10 in the SEC in every hitting category and ranked in the top 50 in the NCAA in slugging percentage, runs per game and RBIs per game. The Tigers had at least two players ranked in the top 10 individually in the SEC in every hitting category, including five of the top 10 individuals ranked in total bases.

In 2002, former Tiger All-American Trena Peel led the nation in triples, while breaking the LSU and SEC single-season records. With 14 triples, she was just two shy of the NCAA record. In his first season at LSU the Tigers were second in the SEC and 12th nationally with a .293 team batting average. LSU also led the league in scoring and finished ranked 16th nationally with more than five runs per game.

At UL-Lafayette, DeFeo's team hit .310 and finished the season with a No. 22 national ranking and in the top 10 in hitting and scoring. The 1999 Southern Miss team finished the season ranked second nationally in batting and 10th in scoring. DeFeo was instrumental in helping to revive the Golden Eagle team after a six-year hiatus.

For 11 years, he has served as sole proprietor and instructor of the All-American Softball Clinics in New Jersey, New York, Florida, Pennsylvania and Mississippi. DeFeo has coaching experience at nearly every level of fastpitch softball, including Under-12, Under-16, 18 and Under and Women's Major. DeFeo also is a member of the National Fastpitch Coaches Association.

A native of New Jersey, DeFeo graduated from Rutgers University in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in sport management. He received his master's in sports administration from Southern Miss in 1999. His sister, Stephanie DeFeo, was a three-time All-American under Girouard at UL-Lafayette and is a current assistant coach at Ball State.

MEGAN SMITH

Assistant Coach
Third Year

Megan Smith enters her third season coaching the infielders in the LSU softball program after spending one year as the head coach at Western Carolina, where she served for the inaugural 2006 season.

In her first two years as an assistant with the Tigers, Smith guided the LSU infield to its first and third best finishes in program history, including a .974 mark in 2008. The .974 also ranked 13th in the NCAA.

Overcoming injuries that decimated the infield, she was forced to shift players to unfamiliar positions and have several players learn new positions during the 2007 season.

A broken finger by third baseman Tayl'r Hollis forced her to miss 15 games and put Erika Sluss at the hot corner for the first time in her career. Shannon Stein also broke her finger at second base, which forced Vanessa Soto to shift from first to second and Kristen Hobbs to move from behind the plate to first for the first time in her career. Despite these difficulties, Tiger infielders committed only 35 errors the entire season, one of the best seasons in the field in school history.

As the head coach for the Catamounts in 2006, she guided the first-year program to their first Southern Conference title, compiling a 41-20 record, including a 16-4 mark in league play. For her success, she was named the SoCon Coach of the Year.

Her team posted 81 home runs, which ranked third nationally, while WCU ranked 12th in the NCAA in slugging percentage, 19th in scoring, 38th in win-loss percentage and 50th in batting average. Additionally, three players ranked nationally statistically and two were named to the NFCA All-Southeastern Region team.

Hired in July 2004, Smith built the Western Carolina program from the ground up, spending a year and a half to build the program, including the hiring of staff and the recruitment of players, while supervising the construction of a state-of-the-art softball facility.

She was hired to head the Catamount program from the University of North Carolina, where she had also been a player. As an assistant coach for Donna Papa, she helped the Tar Heels with recruiting, fundraising, and oversaw the academic progress of student-athletes, while participating in practice planning and game management.

In 2004, she helped guide the North Carolina program to a 46-24 record, including a second place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference, while earning an NCAA Regional bid. In addition, she directed the Carolina Softball Camps, overseeing all aspects of the camps.

Prior to her stay at her alma mater, Smith was an assistant coach at Charlotte for the 2002 season. She worked with the infielders, pitchers and served as the hitting coach. The assistant also organized all recruiting efforts for head coach Aimee DeVoss.

For two seasons, Smith served as the head coach at Young Harris College in Georgia from 2000-2001. While there, she guided her program to a 79-41 record. Without an assistant coach, she oversaw all aspects of the team, from practice to strength training to academics to fundraising.

While at Young Harris, she finished second in the regional championships twice and was one game away from the national tournament in 2001. Her team broke nearly every school record, including wins in as season with 45. In addition, in 2002, her squad ranked nationally in batting average and eight players were named to the all-regional team.

During her collegiate career at North Carolina, Smith earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in exercise and sport science and recreation administration. Playing third base primarily, she served as captain during her senior season and broke the school record for RBIs in a game and was named the Defensive Player of the Year in 1999.

Also an exceptional student, the Walkertown, N.C., native was named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference honor roll for three year and made the Dean's List twice. In 2000, she earned her Master's of Science degree in human performance and sports studies with a concentration in sports management from the University of Tennessee.

On June 19, 2004, she married Paul Buske, and the pair welcomed their first child, Cooper Smith Buske, on Aug. 6, 2007.

Adam Roorbach

Director of Softball Operations

Adam Roorbach enters his second season with the LSU softball program as the Director of Softball Operations, after serving as an assistant coach at Houston for the 2007 season.

No stranger to the softball community, he has spent three years as an assistant softball coach at the Division I level after spending four seasons as a head coach at the NAIA and junior college levels. Although new to the LSU program, Roorbach already has ties to the Tiger coaching staff after working with current assistant coach Megan Smith for one season at Western Carolina in 2006.

As an assistant coach with the Cougars last season, he helped the program to its Conference USA Regular Season and Tournament championship in school history, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2004. After knocking off UL-Lafayette and Texas A&M, Houston advanced to the final day of competition at the College Station Regional before falling twice to Aggies to end its season with a school record 44 wins.

Prior to his one-year stint at Houston, Roorbach was an assistant coach at Western Carolina under Smith, who was the Catamounts' head coach. In its inaugural season in 2006, Western Carolina posted a 41-20 record and won the Southern Conference Championship. The Catamounts also ranked third nationally with 81 home runs and 12th in the NCAA with a .476 slugging percentage. Three WCU players were ranked nationally statistically and two were named to the NFCA All-Southeastern Region team.

In 2005, Roorbach served as an assistant coach at Nicholls State. Working primarily with the Lady Colonel hitters and outfielders, Nicholls set a school record with 31 home runs and improved its team batting average by 29 points over the previous season.

Roorbach moved to the Division I level at Nicholls after serving for three seasons as the head coach at NAIA affiliate Bethel College in Mishawaka, Ind. From 2002-2004, he compiled a 102-56 record and won three consecutive Mid-Central Conference Championships and qualified for the NAIA Regional and National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) National Tournaments all three years.

Earning 2003 Mid-Central Conference Coach of the Year honors, Roorbach guided 14 Pilot players to All-Mid-Central Conference awards. Equally as impressive, all three of his teams were awarded the prestigious NFCA Top 10 Academic Team Award and 17 of his players were named NFCA Academic All-Americans.

Prior to arriving at Bethel, Roorbach spent one season as the head coach at Andrew College in Cuthbert, Ga. In his only season, he guided the Tigers to a 14-18 record, a 13-win improvement over the previous years' 1-32 mark. In addition, he faced Smith on the field for the first time as Andrew College took on Young Harris College, where Smith was the head coach.

Roorbach graduated from Indiana Wesleyan University in 1999 with a double major in business administration and sports management, he went on to earn his master's degree in physical education from Eastern Illinois in 2000. While attending Indiana Wesleyan, he served as an assistant softball coach and also the school's sports information director.

Kristen Hobbs

Student Assistant Coach

After an outstanding four-year career for the Tigers, Kristen Hobbs returns for her second season to the LSU softball program as a student assistant coach for the 2008 season.

A native of Royal Palm Beach, Fla., Hobbs was awarded the Brad Davis SEC Community Service Scholarship last year for her work with the CHAMPS/Life Skills program and volunteering in the area. She was also a three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and the SEC Good Works Team.

Hobbs had the best season of her career as a senior, being named to the NCAA Tempe Super Regional All-Tournament team and being selected the Most Valuable Player of the Easton Tiger Classic. Overcoming Tommy John surgery that limited her to just seven games and no starts during the 2006 season, she closed out her career on a high note playing behind the plate, and also filling in at first base and as designated player.

A career .232 hitter, she hit .283 as a senior with a career-high eight home runs, after having hit only two in her previous three seasons at LSU. One of three Tiger softball team captains, she has also surpassed her season-bests with 32 hits, 20 runs scored and 22 RBIs. Hobbs is also the LSU career fielding percentage record holder, having committed just five errors in over 600 chances for a .992 mark in four years.

In May 2007, she earned her bachelor's degree from LSU in mass communications. Hobbs is currently working towards her master's degree in sports management.

Ana Gross

Associate Athletics Trainer

Ana Gross begins her third season as the associate athletics trainer for the LSU softball program. She joined the Tigers' staff after spending two years at Southern Miss. In addition to her duties as the athletics trainer for softball, she works to coordinate the drug prevention program for LSU's student-athletes.

While at Southern Miss, Gross spent two years working for the baseball team. She also worked with the cross country, soccer and football teams. In January 2006, she was promoted to Assistant Athletic Trainer.

A New Orleans native, Gross graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in athletic training. As an undergraduate for the Tigers, she worked with LSU's 2003 National Champion football team, nationally ranked women's basketball team, and men's tennis team.

Gross earned her master's degree from Southern Miss in sports administration in May 2006. The oldest of Greg and Maria Gross' five children, she is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Melissa Moore

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Melissa Moore enters her third year at LSU as the assistant strength & conditioning coordinator with the Tiger softball team.

Moore, a native of Enon, La., also coordinates the strength and conditioning of LSU women's basketball team and assists with the LSU Football.

Moore came to LSU after stints at both Georgia Tech and Elon as an assistant strength & conditioning coach. She spent two years at Georgia Tech working with Yellowjackets' softball and women's tennis programs after a brief stint working with Elon's baseball, men's and women's soccer, women's basketball and track teams.

A graduate of Southern Miss, Moore spent two years working with the football, baseball, men's and women's basketball, soccer, tennis, softball and volleyball programs at USM while working toward her master's degree.

Moore's expertise in strength and conditioning has led her to be published in two publications, including The Journal of Strength and Conditioning Research and Medicine & Science in Sports & Exercise. She also authored an online presentation for the Atlantic Coast Conference's website about Georgia Tech's off-season softball training.

Matt Dunaway

Associate SID/Softball Contact

Matt Dunaway enters his first year as an associate sports information director at LSU. He serves as the primary media relations contact for the Tiger softball and volleyball teams in addition to promoting LSU athletics community service efforts.

Dunaway comes to LSU from Rice where he promoted the Owl women's basketball and tennis teams in addition to sharing secondary football duties. He also was the analyst for the women's basketball broadcast team where Valeriya Berezhynska was a third round pick of the WNBA's Detroit Shock. Bruno Rosa also tallied a NCAA Tennis All-America selection as the Owls finished No. 24 nationally in 2008.

Prior to Rice, Dunaway spent two years across town as a sports information assistant at the University of Houston. There he was the primary contact for the Cougar softball, volleyball and tennis teams. The 2007 Cougar softball team won the Conference USA championship en route to a NCAA Regional berth as Angel Shamblin and Jessica Valis swept C-USA Pitcher and Player of the Year awards. The pair also earned NFCA All-South Region accolades.

Dunaway graduated from UCF in May 2005 with a BA in broadcast journalism from the Nicholson School of Communication. He was a student assistant in the sports information office where he shared media relations duties for the 2005 Golden Knight NCAA Regional Softball team that posted a 47-29-1 record. Stephanie Best was selected Atlantic Sun Player of the Year and NFCA All-Southeast Region honors.

As a student, Dunaway wrote for the Central Florida Future and KnightVision. He also held sports director duties for the student chapter of the UCF ISP Sports Network responsible for broadcasting Golden Knight volleyball, women's basketball, softball and baseball.

2009 INAUGURAL SEASON

LSU

REVIEW

Ten for the Tigers

LSU RACKS UP 10TH NCAA REGIONAL BID

For the 10th time in 12 seasons, the Tigers earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament. LSU has tallied a 33-20 all-time mark, the seventh best all-time winning percenatage in tournament play.

The Tigers are one of three teams in the SEC with multiple Women's College World Series appearances (Alabama and Tennessee) and one of two with a winning WCWS record (Tennessee).

LSU advanced through the NCAA Regionals to the WCWS on two occassions (2001 & 2004), finishing seven outs from the national championship game in 2004. In 2007, the Tigers swept through the NCAA Regionals to earn a bid to the NCAA Super Regionals before falling to Arizona State.

DUO ON SEC ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Seniors Quinlan Duhon and Shannon Stein were named to the SEC All-Tournament Team. Duhon led the team with a .571 average for the tournament, the highest average by any player in the tournament. In addition, she recorded a double, a home run and two RBIs while scoring once for a 1.143 slugging percentage. It marked the first SEC All-Tournament honor of her career. Stein was second on the team with a .500 average, including a double, a home run, two RBIs and two runs scored for a 1.167 slugging percentage. She recorded the first inside the park home run at LSU in over four years with the roundtripper against Auburn.

THREE NAMED TO ALL-SEC TEAMS

Outfielder Rachel Mitchell was named to the 2008 All-SEC first team, while outfielder Quinlan Duhon and pitcher Cody Trahan were named to the second team. It marked the second All-SEC honor for Mitchell, who was named to the All-Freshman team last season. It is the first All-SEC honor for both Duhon and Trahan. Ranked in the top 10 in the SEC in 10 categories including batting average, RBIs and home runs in league play, Mitchell was an easy selection to the first team. Stepping up her play in her final season, Duhon ranks in the top 10 in the SEC in slugging percentage and home runs and recorded three RBIs on a walk-off home run to post a run-rule win over Auburn. With the loss of Dani Hofer to injury, Trahan stepped in to the No. 1 role and has gone 6-0 since that time, picking up three wins against Arkansas, two against South Carolina and one over nationally ranked Tennessee.

HENDERSON REACHES 100 STEALS

Senior Dee Dee Henderson became only the second player in LSU history and sixth in SEC history to record 100 stolen bases with a swipe of second in the sixth inning of the first game against Auburn on March 21. Against UL-Monroe, Henderson became just the second player in LSU history to record 30 stolen bases in a single season, joining Dee Douglas, who accomplished the feat four times. Despite starting only 36 games entering the 2008 season, Henderson has recorded over 20 steals in each of her four seasons.

A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME

In honor of LSU head coach Yvette Girouard's mother Rose Mary Girouard, who passed away in September 2007, the team will wear a rose decal on their batting helmets throughout the season. An avid supporter of her daughter for almost 30 years, Mama G was a fixture at softball games and she will be missed by fans everywhere.

MORE THAN A DECADE OF DOMINANCE

In its 12th season of softball in the modern era, LSU has achieved an unrivaled tradition of success. The Tigers have won more SEC Championships than all other conference schools combined, while remaining one of only two schools in league history to record the triple crown (Division, Overall and Tournament Titles) in the same season, having accomplished the feat four times.

LSU POSTS SECOND-MOST WINS

In just its 12th year since reinstatement in 1997, LSU has proven to be among the elite in the nation. The Tigers have averaged 52.0 wins per year in its previous 12 years, which is by far the best in the SEC in that span.

In the nation, LSU is second to only Arizona, which has averaged 55.0 wins a season over the past 12 years. The Tigers also are third in winning percentage behind only Arizona and UCLA. The Tigers rank ahead of past national champions Michigan, Oklahoma, California and Fresno State.

LSU DOMINATES SEC SERIES

LSU has now competed in 118 series against conference foes and has only lost 18. The Tigers have swept 33 three-game series since the SEC adopted the three-game format in 2001 and taken 22 more series wins in that time period. In 2008, LSU is 2-0 in mid-week doubleheader series and 4-0 since the SEC changed to a 28-game schedule.

Prior to 2001, the league played four-game series against divisional opponents and doubleheaders against cross divisional rivals. LSU swept nine four-game series and 15 doubleheaders while taking six series, 3-1. LSU now has an SEC series record of 89-18-11 (.801).

MEMORABLE FIRSTS

Freshman Jessica Mouse's first career at-bat was something she will likely not forget. In the top of the first inning against St. John's in the season opener, Mouse came up to the plate for the first time in her collegiate career. She drilled the first pitche she saw deep over the center field fence for her first collegiate home run.

Mouse nearly duplicated the feat in her first career at-bat of SEC play. On the sixth pitch of the at-bat against Georgia, she slammed the ball over the center field fence for her third career home run.

Freshman Casey Faile's first career home run was the only run scored in a 1-0 win over South Alabama in the Easton Purple & Gold Challenge. With the win, LSU advanced to the championship game against Tulsa, where the Tigers defeated the Golden Hurricane for the tournament title.

TIGERS SCORE EARLY...

In 62 games, the Tigers have outscored their opponents, 49-22 (+27), in the first inning. By the end of the second inning, the Tigers hold a commanding 81-39 (+42) scoring margin. LSU is 35-3 when leading after the fourth inning. The only losses came against then No. 2 Northwestern, at No. 2 Alabama and at No. 9 Tennessee.

In games when the Tigers have scored first, LSU is 34-5 (.889). In games where the opponent scores first, the Tigers are only 10-13 (.435). The last time LSU scored first in a game and lost was on May 9, 2008, when LSU fell to No. 3 Alabama, 7-4, in the SEC Tournament at Tiger Park.

...AND TIGERS SCORE OFTEN

This season, the Tigers have scored 320 runs in 62 games for a 5.17 runs per game average, just under the school record of 5.58 set in 2004. On six occasions this season, LSU has broken into double figures in runs.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

In 2008, LSU tied for second in the SEC with 16 runners caught stealing. The Tigers have allowed only 34 stolen bases in 50 attempts. Senior Killian Roessner is tied for second in the conference with 15 runners caught stealing.

Roessner has allowed just 33 stolen bases, including six with runners on the corners and second base conceded, for a .651 mark.

DROPPING BOMBS

In 2008, LSU averaged nearly a home run a game. The Tigers belted 57 home runs in 62 games, led by Quinlan Duhon and Rachel Mitchell with 11 home runs each. Killian Roessner added 10 homer, while Erika Sluss tallied eight.

LSU hit the third most home runs in a single season in school history and finished only three behind the school record of 60 in 2004.

Conversely, the Tigers allowed 43 home runs, the most home runs allowed by an LSU team in school history.

Farewell to Tiger Park

A school record 2,326 fans watched as LSU knocked off No. 1 Tennessee as part of a series win over the top-ranked Lady Volunteers in 2007.

At the end of the 2008 season, the LSU softball program said goodbye to the old Tiger Park.

Built in 1996, the 1,000-seat facility was the softball team's home since its inception in 1997. The old Tiger Park quickly became known as one of the toughest places in the nation for visitors to play.

In 12 seasons, the old Tiger Park played hosted to the 2008 SEC Tournament in addition to five NCAA Regionals.

For the program's history, LSU was 14-6 (.700) all-time in postseason games and won nine of its last 11 NCAA Regional games in the old Tiger Park.

The old Tiger Park was home to some amazing feats.

On May 20, 2000, LSU and Southern Miss battled out 12 scoreless innings in a NCAA Regional game before the Tigers plated the game-winner on a Stephanie Hastings sacrifice fly in the 13th.

In 2001, the Tigers advanced through the NCAA Regional tournament dismissing Cornell, Penn State, Arizona State and UL-Lafayette securing its first berth in the Women's College World Series.

The 2006 squad posted a remarkable 34-3 (.919) mark in the old Tiger Park as LSU jumped out to a program-best 14-0 start.

In 2007, the Tigers played host to an ESPN national television audience and No. 1 Tennessee as a school record 2,326 fans packed the Old Tiger Park. LSU took the final two games of the series from the top-ranked Volunteers.

In its final season, LSU set a program attendance record for the second consecutive season as 919 fans watched the Tigers win 30 home games for the fifth time in program history.

Over the years, the old Tiger Park drew over 160,000 fans. LSU owned an astounding 338-51 (.873) record at home, including a 140-34 (.805) Southeastern Conference mark.

Dr. Michael V. Martin

Chancellor, LSU

Dr. Michael V. Martin was approved as the eighth chancellor of LSU by the Board of Supervisors on June 5, 2008. Dr. Martin, formerly the president of New Mexico State University, had served at NMSU since 2004.

In his time at NMSU he was praised for his reorganization of the university's athletic department and physical plant, as well as his fundraising prowess. A 1969 graduate of Mankato State College, Dr. Martin received a Ph.D. in applied economics from the University of Minnesota in 1977 and has since worked in both academic and administrative capacities at universities such as Minnesota, Oregon State University and the University of Florida.

An agricultural economist, Dr. Martin is considered an expert on land-grant universities.

Dr. Martin became president of New Mexico State University on July 1, 2004. An academic leader dedicated to the land-grant mission of teaching, research and extension service, he was awarded the 2008 Distinguished Leadership Award by Leadership New Mexico. Dr. Martin was recognized as a strong voice for education and the agriculture industry in New Mexico. The Leadership New Mexico Distinguished Leadership Award recognizes an individual who has used his/her leadership abilities to improve the quality of life for New Mexico citizens and future generations.

Dr. Martin also was named the recipient of the Justin Smith Morrill Memorial Award in 2007. This national award, named after the author of the bill creating land-grant universities, honors and recognizes outstanding service on behalf of the land-grant mission. Only six individuals have been designated to receive this award since it was first given in 1980.

Dr. Martin established at NMSU the One University concept and called for a five-year plan titled "Living the Vision" to take the university to "the next level." He laid the groundwork for university wide extension and created the J. Paul Taylor Social Justice Symposium.

During his tenure at NMSU, the first capital campaign was established with a goal of raising $150 million by 2010. The campaign met its goal in the first half of the seven-year fundraising plan. Dr. Martin also oversaw the establishment of a system of research clusters that revolve around five areas in which NMSU scientists and researchers have expertise: 21st century aerospace, information sciences, bioscience, southwest border issues, and natural resources.

Dr. Martin was a recognized leader in New Mexico, being named a powerbroker by the New Mexico Business Weekly in 2006. He continues to be active as a scholar and has written numerous book chapters and articles for academic journals, trade publications and the popular press. He recently has published pieces for The Chronicle of Higher Education and University Business. Named the Outstanding Alumnus of Minnesota State University Mankato in 2006, Dr. Martin also received the NMSU Social Justice Award in 2005.

Before arriving at NMSU, he served for six years as vice president for agriculture and natural resources at the University of Florida, leading the university's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences with more than 3,000 employees statewide. He was elevated to senior vice president of the University of Florida shortly before being selected as NMSU's president.

Previously, he was vice president for agricultural policy and the dean of the College of Agricultural, Food and Environmental Sciences at the University of Minnesota. He began his academic career at Oregon State University as a faculty member in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

A native of Crosby, Minn., Dr. Martin completed a bachelor's degree in business and economics and a master's degree in economics at Mankato State College (Minnesota State University) in Minnesota. He received his Ph.D. in applied economics from the University of Minnesota in 1977. His areas of specialization are marketing, prices, international trade, public policy, transportation and business logistics.

Some of his philosophy is summed up in the following quote: "It is the tradition of land-grant universities to be non-traditional," written as part of a 2001 article titled "The Land-Grant University in the 21st Century," published in the Journal of Agricultural and Applied Economics. He traced the history of the land-grant movement from the mid-1800s and concluded that "the fundamental land-grant principles of accessibility, practical as well as classical education, research and discovery in the public interest, and connectedness to all the people remain powerful and profound."

He has been active in professional and community service organizations, including the Farm Foundation's Bennett Agricultural Round Table, the National Agricultural Biotechnology Council and the Florida Agricultural Resource Mobilization Foundation. He is a member of the American Economic Association, the American Agricultural Economics Association, the International Association of Agricultural Economics, the International Agricultural Trade Research Consortium, the Sigma XI Scientific Research Society and the Economic History Association.

Dr. Martin and his wife Jan have two children, both adopted from South Korea. Amanda, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, is a graphic artist in Saint Paul, Minn. Sam, with a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and a master's from Sarah Lawrence College, is a genetics counselor at Beth Israel Hospital in New York City.

Dydia DeLyser

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dydia DeLyser, an associate professor in the Department of Geography and Anthropology, serves in her second year as LSU's Faculty Athletics Representative.

DeLyser, a native of Santa Monica, Calif., earned her bachelor's degree in 1992 from UCLA, and her master's and doctoral degrees from Syracuse University (in 1996 and 1998).

DeLyser arrived at LSU in August 1998 as an Instructor before becoming an assistant professor one year later. She was promoted to associate professor with tenure in August 2005.

DeLyser is a cultural-historical geographer. Her research has been both ethnographic and historical, and most of it questions how different built landscapes can help make the past meaningful in the present.

Much of her published research has focused on two different studies. One was a many-year ethnographic study of a ghost town in California (Bodie State Historic Park) where she examined how images and ideas about the American mythic West became meaningful to the tourists who visited the town. The second was an historical study that examined a 19th century novel (Ramona) and how it changed the way people understood (and still understand) southern California's past.

Her current research concerns early women aviators and how they used their practices of flying to advance feminism in the post-suffrage era.

DeLyser teaches graduate courses in cultural geography, qualitative research, and academic and professional writing. She has also taught undergraduate courses in cultural, and urban geography, and an introductory world-regional geography course.

DeLyser is a first-generation American -- her parents were Dutch immigrants and English is her second language. She also has language abilities in Russian and Spanish.

DeLyser's hobbies include driving/riding antique cars and motorcycles. She is also a licensed pilot and co-owns a Citabria, which is a two-place aerobatic airplane.

Joe Alleva

LSU Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva officially became the Director of Athletics at LSU on July 1, 2008, after spending the last ten years in the same position at the prestigious Duke University. Under Alleva's direction, the Duke athletic department experienced unprecedented growth and success.

"Joe Alleva brings a wealth of experience and accomplishment to LSU," said President John Lombardi. "I'm confident we've found a new leader for LSU athletics who exemplifies the vision and integrity needed to lead our sports programs to new heights, a champion of student athletes who believes in the highest standards of competition both on the field and in the classroom."

At LSU, Alleva is responsible for the administration and direction of the Tiger athletic program, which has a current annual budget of approximately $70 million, includes 20 teams and more than 400 student-athletes.

At Duke, Alleva oversaw more than 190 staff members, a $50 million budget, 26 sports and over 600 student-athletes. Duke athletics flourished under Alleva's direction.

Alleva, 55, has built his professional career on service to student-athletes and the commitment to individual development in athletics, academics and community service. Alleva is well-respected for sustaining high standards of excellence and integrity in the athletics program, the quality of coaches he has hired, and the high level of success that was achieved across athletic programs at Duke under his leadership.

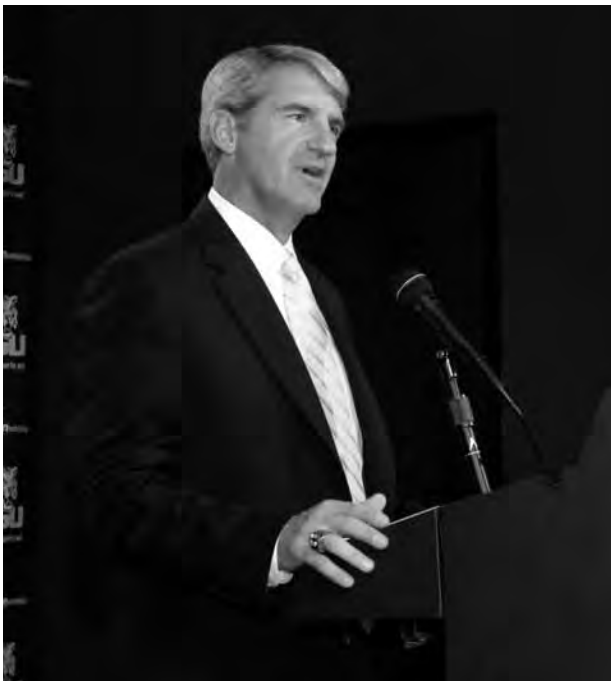
Alleva's tenure as AD at Duke propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. The Blue Devils consistently finished high in the annual Directors' Cup standings, ranking as high as fifth in 2005. Prior to 1998-99, Alleva's first full year as director of athletics, Duke had never placed higher than 21st in the Directors' Cup standings. Since then, Duke has enjoyed seven top 20 finishes, including five in succession (2004-08).

In the 2006 National Collegiate Scouting Association Power Rankings, that combine a school's Directors' Cup finish, its athletic graduation rates and its academic ranking in U.S. News and World Report, Duke was the top-ranked Division I school in the nation. Duke also finished first in this listing in 2005 and second in 2004.

Alleva's outstanding list of accomplishments includes Duke winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other 10-year period in school history. Six Duke teams won national championships under Alleva's leadership and 46 Blue Devil teams recorded ACC championships, the second-highest total among ACC schools since 1997-98.

Under Alleva's commitment to education, Duke's graduation rates continued to rank among the best in the nation. Duke regularly led the ACC in Academic Honor Roll honorees as Alleva increased the financial commitment to academic support by ten-fold during his tenure as AD.

While continuing to excel in competition and in the classroom, Alleva instituted a number of innovative community service programs for Duke student-athletes to benefit the community. Duke student-athletes regularly volunteered nearly 3,000 hours in community outreach.



Athletics Director Joe Alleva introduces new LSU men's basketball coach Trent Johnson during a press conference on April 10, 2008.

Fundraising under Alleva's guidance reached extensive heights during his career at Duke. Alleva and his fundraising team generated more than $173 million in gifts and funded more than $85 million in new facilities or renovations. Annual giving to the Iron Dukes increased 50 percent since the year 2000.

New facilities built under Alleva's supervision include the Michael W. Krzyzewski Center Dedicated to Athletic and Academic Excellence, Yoh Football Center, Sheffield Tennis Center, Schwartz-Butters Athletic Center, Ambler Tennis Stadium, Karcher-Ingram Golf Center, Rod Myers Teaching Center, the Skandalaris Fieldhouse at Koskinen Stadium and the fieldhouse at Williams Field. Facility upgrades were made to Cameron Indoor Stadium, Wallace Wade Stadium, Jack Coombs Stadium, Koskinen Stadium, Williams Field, Murray Athletic Building, and Brooks Field at the football practice facility.

Alleva is active on the national collegiate athletics scene, having served on the Football Bowl Certification Committee. He sat on several Atlantic Coast Conference committees and served on the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet.

Alleva majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

Alleva began his career at Duke working for the vice president of business and finance in 1976 and joined the Duke athletic department in 1980, as director of finance. He became the assistant director of athletics in 1986 and was soon promoted in 1987 to associate director, before his tenure as Director of Athletics in 1998.

He played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program

Alleva is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have two sons, J.D. and Jeff, along with a daughter, Jenny. J.D. played baseball at Duke and was picked in the 24th-round of the 2001 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft by the Kansas City Royals and is now a professional scout for the Houston Astros. Jeff finished his baseball career at Duke in 2003 and signed a free agent contract with the Royals following his senior season. He recently graduated with his MBA from the prestigious Fuqua School of Business at Duke. Jenny, a four-year letterwinner on Duke's women's soccer team, attends law school at the University of North Carolina.

LSU ATHLETICS

Championship TRADITION

2007-2008 ATHLETICS YEAR IN REVIEW

The Nation's Elite Teams

Football

The Tigers celebrated the 10th SEC Championship in school history and capped an amazing season with the program's third national title and second since 2003. LSU posted a 12-2 overall record and a 6-2 mark in SEC play. The Tigers tallied their fourth BCS bowl victory as LSU defeated Ohio State, 38-24, in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game.

Women's Basketball

The Lady Tigers reached their fifth-straight NCAA Final Four with a 31-5 overall record after wins over Jackson State, Marist, Oklahoma State and North Carolina in the NCAA Tournament. LSU claimed the SEC regular-season title with an unblemished 14-0 mark, representing the second time in the last four seasons the Lady Tigers ran through the conference schedule unbeaten.

Track and Field

The LSU women's track and field team claimed the 14th NCAA Outdoor championship in school history, and the Lady Tigers were NCAA runners-up during the indoor season. The LSU men's track and field team placed second at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The Lady Tigers swept both the SEC Indoor and Outdoor titles, while the men's team captured league runner-up honors during both seasons.

Baseball

The baseball team completed one of the most remarkable turnarounds in SEC history as the Tigers reached the College World Series for the 14th time. The Tigers, who once held a 6-11-1 record in SEC play, won the SEC Western Division, the SEC Tournament, the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional and the NCAA Baton Rouge Super Regional. The turnaround was sparked by an SEC-record 23 consecutive wins down the stretch.

Gymnastics

The gymnastics team advanced to the NCAA Super Six for the first time in program history after the Tigers won the NCAA Central Regional. LSU finished fifth at the NCAA Championships. The fifth-place ranking marked the highest finish for a Tiger gymnastics team since 1988, which was prior to the establishment of the NCAA Super Six. LSU now has 24 consecutive postseason appearances.

How The West Was Won

LSU became the first school to claim the SEC Western Division title in all three fall sports -- football, volleyball and soccer – and the Tigers added another divisional championship in the spring with baseball. The volleyball team won its third-straight Western Division title with a 25-8 overall record, and the soccer team finished with a 12-5-7 overall mark to win the program's first division crown.

The Southeastern Conference

Setting the Standard for Athletics in Softball

As it enters its 13th year of existence, SEC softball has established itself as one of the leading conferences in the sport.

The Southeastern Conference tied its conference record, qualifying eight teams for the 2008 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, and Tennessee as the conference made its 11th overall, sixth consecutive, Women's College World Series appearance.

History was made as Florida received the league's first No. 1 national seed. Alabama earned the No. 3 national seed, giving the SEC two top five seeds. Overall, the SEC had five national seeds including No. 9 LSU, No. 13 Tennessee and No. 15 Georgia. Two teams, Florida and Alabama, advanced all the way to the semifinal round of the Women's College World Series, marking the first time ever the SEC had two of the final four teams left in the series.

The Southeastern Conference totaled seven bids for the 2007 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee.

A record five teams advanced to the Super Regionals and Tennessee led the charge all the way to the Championship series of the WCWS. History was made as the Lady Vols became the first SEC team to advance to the Championship Series and was part of the most-viewed WCWS game on TV. As the runners-up, Tennessee finished the season ranked No. 2, the highest by an SEC team.

The SEC earned six bids for the 2006 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU and Tennessee. Alabama and Tennessee returned for the second straight year to the Women's College World Series.

The SEC also qualified six teams for the 2005 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi State and Tennessee.

Leading all conferences, the SEC qualified a then league-best eight teams for the 2004 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee. LSU was the lone SEC school to receive a No. 1 seed as the Tigers advanced to its second WCWS appearance in four years and Kristin Schmidt was named the WCWS Most-Outstanding Player.

The SEC notched six bids for the 2003 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State and South Carolina. Alabama was the lone SEC team to receive a No.1 seed, and the Crimson Tide, along with Florida, hosted regional tournaments.

The SEC tallied seven bids for the 2002 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Auburn, Arkansas, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State and South Carolina. LSU was the lone SEC team to receive a No. 1 seed, while South Carolina hosted a regional for the second time since 1997.

In 2001 the SEC qualified four teams for the NCAA Tournament. LSU, Alabama, South Carolina and Florida as the Tigers broke through to its first Women's College World Series appearance under NFCA Hall of Fame Coach Yvette Girouard.

The SEC picked up six bids for the 2000 NCAA Tournament, as LSU, Arkansas, Mississippi State, Alabama, Florida and SEC Tournament Champion South Carolina all made the field of 48.

The 1999 season was the first in which the conference was eligible for an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament. That year, four teams earned bids to postseason - Alabama, LSU, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Softball came under the auspices of the Southeastern Conference in the 1996-97 season. Since that time, nine different conference teams have made appearances in the NCAA Championship, including five teams earning Women's College World Series berths - one by South Carolina in the inaugural season, Alabama in 2000, 2003, 2005, 2006 and 2008, Florida in 2008, LSU in 2001 and 2004 and Tennessee in 2005, 2006 and 2007.

Eight teams (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee) have made Top 25 appearances and five teams have climbed into the Top 10 (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU and Tennessee) of the NFCA/USA Today Poll.

South Carolina is the flagship team of the league with a rich history in softball dating back 34 seasons. The Gamecocks have made 15 NCAA Regional and three Women's College World Series appearances.

Mississippi State played softball for five seasons during the 1980's before resuming the sport when it was added to the SEC. Tennessee added softball in 1995-96, one year before its inception in the SEC. Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU and Ole Miss began softball programs in 1996-97 to give the league 11 representatives (Vanderbilt does not sponsor softball).
